The persistent effect upon the heart of caffeins in coffee cannot but result in the gravest conditions, in time

Each attack of the drug (and that means each cup of colless weakens the organ a little more, and the end is almost a matter of mathematical demonstration. A lady writes from a West-

I am of German descent and it was natural that I should burn at a very early age to drink coffee. Until I was 20 years old I drank scarcely anything else at my meals.

"A few years ago I began to be affeeted by a steadily increasing nervpusness, which eventually developed into a distressing heart trouble that made me very weak and miserable. Then, some three years ago, was added asthma in its worst form. My sufferings from these things can be better imagined than described.

During all this time my husband realized more fully than I did that coffee was injurious to me, and made every effort to make me stop.

Finally it was decided a few months ago to quit the use of coffee absolutely, and to adopt Postum Food Coffee as our hot table drink. I had but little idea that it would help me, but consented to try it to please my husband. I prepared it very carefully, exactly according to directions, and was delighted with its delicious flavor and refreshing qualities.

"Just so soon as the poison from the coffee had time to get out of my system the nutritive properties of the Postum began to build me up, and I am now fully recovered from all my nervousness, heart trouble and asthma. I gladly acknowledge that now, for the first time in years, I enjoy perfect health, and that I owe it all to Pos-Name given by Postum Co. Battle Creek, Mich.

I guess it would have been all right, only the cannibats got to rmaing the Philadelphia beer, and it was all off, rause roast dos asn't good enough for them, and ey wanted to roast pa.

First they offered pa dog to eat, but had swore off on dog, and presed a II, and that made the cannibal and they got ready to road pa-I gness they would have eaten half cooked, if it hadn't been for performers and freaks who had d their per dors, and the circus mets told them the cantibals had of gone to the woods with a mess of to roast for a dog feast.

Well, they were just getting a fire sound pa, and he was giving the rand halling sigh of distress, when performers, headed by the fat man, whose peeled Mexican dog as keet in the shuffle, came in cought the cannibals, and pa and the dogs were rescued, in the madest fight I ever saw. The perrmers just walked right over the and mauled them with sizes, and all the dogs that had not on killed were pulled away from heathen, and saved. The fat oman got her dog all right, and hen pa came up from the stake hare they were going to burn him, congratulated her on recovering a dog, she turned on pa and accused in of being the leading cannibal, to that he was the one who put up he whole job to steal the dogs. She sabled him with a parasol, but pa as innocent.

The Indiana got back to the tent long towards morning, and the canitals went back with us, and we had o feed them on weiners, which was the nearest to roast agg we could get for them at that time of night.

Pa seems to get it in the neck in this show, cause everything that goes wrong is laid to him, and if anything goes right, somebody else gets the credit, and I think he would resign if it was not for his pride. After the the tribes in their wild orgies, and said we couldn't maintain discipline as long as pa mixed up with them and ncouraged them in such things. Pa tried to explain that he was the detim instead of being the cause of the dog roast, but the manager dismissed pa by telling him not to let it occur again. Then to show the inconpa to go on ahead of the show to New York, and a vertise that the cannibals in our show would give an exhibition of reasting and eating a human being and to offer a reward for anybody that would consent to be rousted and eaten in public. Pa has gone to New York to look for somebody who will take the position of meat for the cannibals, and he s instructed to spare no expense to find such a man. He thinks he may find somebody connected with the Equitable Life insurance scandal, who has lost all desire to live any longer, and who will giadly go into this "mu tual" scheme. I don't know.

The Harlem resident emerged from the city hall subway exit. He was plainly dejected, relates the New York Globe

"Why, hello, Jimson," cried a com rade of the night before. "You look as blue as an undertaker at a health resort Cheer up. I feel just as sick as you this morning

"Oh, it isn't that," grouned the deject ed man

"But you were the life and soul of ou jolly party last night. You even insist ed on waltzing with the dignified head wniter.

"I remember. "Then we took a hack to your house and we all cheered when you got up on your front step and made a neat little speech to the effect that your wife would be home from the mountains on the morrow, and you were glad to let loose at least once before you settled down, it was a large night."

"Bah! My wife returned a day earli er and was in the window watching my performance. Please kick me down these subway steps and back, up again

BABY COVERED WITH SORES.

Would Scratch and Tear the Flesh Unless Hands Were Tied-"Would Have Died But for Cuticura."

"My little son, when about a year and a half old, began to have sores come out on his face. I had a physician treat him, but the sores grew worse. Then they began to come on his some, then on other parts of his body, and then one came on his cheet, worse than the others. Then I called another physician. Still be grew worse. At the end of about a year and a half of suffering he grew so bad I had to the his hands in cloths at high to keep him from scratching the sores and tearing the field. He got to be a mere skeleton, and was hardly able to walk. My Aunt advised me to try Cuttura Soap and Onthment. I sent to the drug store and got a cake of the Soap and a box of the Ontment and at the end of about two months the sores were all well, "My little son, when about a year and a lox of the Conteent, and at the end of about two months the sores were all well. He has never but any sores of any kind since. He is now strong and healths, and I can sincerely say that only for your most wonderful remedies my presions child would have died from those terrible sores. Mrs. Egbert Sheldon B. F. D.
